Class Descriptions and Registration

All classes meet once a week, from 3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m., unless otherwise noted.

Monday (4/3 – 6/12) - No class on 5/29

_____ Express Yo Self

Open to Elementary Students. Students will explore artists throughout history and create their own artwork inspired by a range of genres and techniques. Each week will be centered on personal, emotional expression and students will be encouraged to be big, bold, and messy in their art-making! Mixed mediums and materials will be used to explore color, texture and pattern to support self-expression. Victory staff will provide support to students as they; increase their comfort and ability to manipulate a variety of textures and materials, practice flexibility while engaging in new activities and sensory materials, while practicing a variety of fine motor tasks.

Spring Session Charge: $160.00

Instructor: Sula Willson

Bike and Hike

Open to Middle and High School Students. This class will give students an opportunity to practice proper bike riding etiquette and techniques at both the Graham Oaks Nature Park and the Mentor Graphics walking loop. This class is for already confident bike riders. Students can either bring their personal bike to school, or borrow one from Victory. Parents will need to pick their students up at 4:30 p.m. at the appropriate park.

Spring Session Charge: $160.00

Instructor: Mary Ellen Andersen & Chris Yensan

Model Magic

Open to Middle and High School Students. This class is for kids who love to create, but might not want to get their hands too dirty. Unlike other clays, model magic is marshmallow-soft, does not stain, and air-dries overnight. Students enrolled in Model Magic will explore this fun medium through structured activities, then have a chance to create from their own imaginations. Students with high sensory needs and/or vivid imaginations will greatly benefit from experience using this medium and have a blast at the same time!

Spring Session Charge: $160.00

Instructor: Kyna Brockett

Tuesday (4/4 – 6/13)

Ball Games

Open to Elementary Students. As the weather gets warmer, students can join the fun in Victory's Ball Games class and hone their skills in a variety of fun, ball-centered activities. Different games will be explored with an emphasis on kicking, throwing, bouncing, and batting t-ball style. Students will experience continued practice with gross motor and bilateral coordination, along with sharing and turn-taking opportunities.

Spring Session Charge: $176.00

Instructor: TBD

Athletic Training with Specialty Athletic Training

Open to Middle and High School Students. Fun and structured fitness class taught by instructors each week from Specialty Athletic Training that will keep students engaged and excited to exercise. Students will be taught how to properly warm up, learn basic exercise movements, proper breathing techniques, and cool down strategies that can all be done at home as well. These trainers have many years of experience working with children of all abilities and skill levels and know how to make fitness enjoyable and fun. In addition, students in training will experience an increase in self-esteem and overall health. For more information about Specialty Athletic training, visit www.specialtyathletictraining.com.

Spring Session Charge: $600.00

Instructor: Specialty Athletic Training Staff

_____ AAC Club

Open to Middle and High School Students. All students participating in this program will use an Augmentative/Alternative Communication (AAC) device at some level to: ask/answer questions, get directions, place orders, find items, comment, and describe with a variety of communication devices. Parents attendance for each session is mandatory, as they will learn how to program devices “on the fly” for their students and get creative ideas using AAC in a variety of community settings.

Spring Session Charge: $200.00

Instructor: Chris Yensan

Thursday (4/6 – 6/15)

_____ BodyVox

Open to Middle and High School Students. Teaching artist Nicole McCall joins Victory from BodyVox Dance Center to provide our students with a creative dance class experience. Creative dance is a way of teaching dance by focusing on fundamental dance themes, rather than exacting choreography. In creative dance, students will explore lessons on Space, Level, Direction, and Size. Each class opens with a brain-compatible warm up and progresses on to more structured improvisations. All lessons are designed to give dancers opportunities for personal interpretation and self-exploration. Our aim is to support Victory students develop a new form of self-expression. The last class will be an opportunity for parents to share in the joy of dance with an “Informance” where you can watch, learn, and dance with your child!

Spring Session Charge: $200.00

Please note – the last session is on Thursday, June 8th

Instructor: Nicole McCall and Victory Staff

_____ Art in Action

Open to Middle and High School Students. This class will focus on making art using a student’s full body to combine movement with creation. Students will move, dance, splash, throw, drip, and experiment to create dynamic pieces of art. The focus will be on the process rather than the product, and students WILL get messy. Executive functioning skills will be engaged when students plan and organize their art, while continuing to practice social thinking skills through collaborative projects throughout the session.

Spring Session Charge: $176.00

Instructor: Mary Ellen Andersen

Friday (4/7 – 6/16) – no class on 4/28

_____ Basketball – back by popular demand

Open to Middle and High School Students. This class is a unique partnership between The Other Side of Basketball (TOSOB) and Victory Academy, aimed at providing students an opportunity to improve their basketball skills in a fun-filled environment. TOSOB’s highly experienced coaches, along with support from Victory staff, will help teach students the importance of team structure within a competitive environment. Skills emphasized (but are not limited to): overall understanding of the game, ball handling, passing, shooting, and team work. TOSOB staff will be on-site for multiple sessions working directly with class participants and Victory staff to gain self-confidence and a better understanding of themselves through basketball. The remaining classes will be taught by Victory staff.

Spring Session Charge: $160.00

Instructor: Victory Staff and guest instructors from The Other Side of Basketball
